

Jeff Mateer, a high-ranking official [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] nominated for [REDACTED] judgeship [REDACTED] [REDACTED] part of "Satan's plan" [REDACTED] open the floodgates for "disgusting" forms [REDACTED] [REDACTED] a public school has been sued "because" a [REDACTED]
a girl who [REDACTED]'s a boy or a boy who [REDACTED]'s a girl

it's probably that [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] a transgender girl [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] is working.

[REDACTED] Mateer also criticized [REDACTED]
same-sex marriage [REDACTED] taking the nation back [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I've learned words I didn't know. [REDACTED] There are people who marry [REDACTED]. Somebody wanted to marry [REDACTED]. People marrying [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] you read [REDACTED] and you read [REDACTED] and you think,
'Oh, that's not going on in our community.'
[REDACTED] yes it is. [REDACTED]

Last week, Trump nominated Mateer as a district judge on the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] the LGBT legal advocacy group Lambda Legal called Mateer's nomination the "latest slap in the face with respect to the LGBT community" [REDACTED] [REDACTED] advocates were working [REDACTED] across the country to ensure Americans know the dangers of these nominations."

[REDACTED] long record of championing religious
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] liberty.

[REDACTED]

extended anti-discrimination protections to include sexual orientation and gender identity.

Mateer was one of five

[REDACTED] s [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] e [REDACTED] t [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] b [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] a [REDACTED] C [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] ks [REDACTED]